

Fortunes In Food Products

The fortunes that have been made, the dividends paid and now being paid to the owners of food products and food product specialties would surprise the average mortal because of the lack of knowledge on his part regarding the very profitable nature of the business.

A few packages of a product sold monthly through only half of the grocery stores in America yields a profit to the owners little understood by the layman. Such a sale spells large and permanent profits to the shareholders.

"Grant's Hygienic Crackers" have been introduced on the Pacific Coast only and a profit showing, dividend-paying business developed.

Although no effort has been made to sell goods in Honolulu several grocers already carry the crackers in stock and have been selling them for two years or more.

The manufacturers are now preparing for an active campaign in the East and to provide additional funds for the work have authorized the sale of $50,000 worth of six per cent Gold Notes with which we are temporarily giving a bonus of 25 per cent in the fully paid stock of the company.

The nature of the business is such that tariff changes, currency disturbance, labor troubles, hard times, etc., have no effect on the sale of the product.

The Gold Notes are sold in denominations of $100, upward, and a bonus of 25 shares of stock is given with each $100 worth sold. The company has been on a profit-showing basis for 50 months and with $50,000 additional money the profits for 1914 will be large.

The company is a going, growing enterprise having the emphatic endorsement of its home commercial bodies. It owns its real estate, plant and equipment free of debt. No floating indebtedness. No money due any bank. No borrowed capital. No large salaries to pay. No preferred stock.

The Gold Notes yield 6 per cent interest payable semi-annually, dating from day of issue. The bonus stock is the common stock and should, within five years, pay from $1. to $3. per share annually.

So safe and carefully managed is the enterprise that applications for the Gold Notes will be accepted by the (Main society section pages 12 and 13)

Society Personals

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the concert given by Mrs. Bruce McV. Mackail at the Odd Fellows' hall on Tuesday evening. Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson was the central figure of the evening, the concert really being in the nature of a debut for her. Her charming soprano voice proved a delightful surprise to those who had not already heard her, possessing, as it does, the qualities of sweetness and sympathy combined with rare power. The most pretentious of her numbers was a selection from "Mignon," enthusiastically appreciated by the several hundred or more society folk who made up the audience. A delightful number on the program was the violin solo by Mr. W. A. Love, accompanied by Mrs. D. H. Hitchcock. Baskets of flowers, leis and floral offerings of all kinds were sent in profusion to the performers, converting the stage into a veritable bower. At the conclusion of the concert, a number of suppers were given at the Rathskellar and University Club.

Among those to sail on the Matsonia next week are Mrs. C. B. Ripley of this city and her daughter, Miss Ivalani Ripley, who leave for San Francisco to spend several weeks visiting and shopping in that city before the marriage of the latter. This, by the way, will occur on April 18, her fiancé, Mr. Carl Edward Basler of Salt Lake City, coming to San Francisco to claim his bride. The wedding will be a quiet affair. Mrs. Robert O'Neill, a school mate of the bride's, will be matron of honor and Mr. Albert Roller, formerly of Honolulu, best man. The wedding trip will be through southern California and Colorado, visiting the Grand Canyon en route. After their honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Salt Lake City where Mr. Basler has business interests. Mrs. Ripley will remain several months in California before rejoining her husband in Honolulu.

The service set is lamenting deeply the departure tomorrow of Major and Mrs. Peter Marquart, who go to their new post in San Francisco. Major Marquart has been with the 2d Infantry for 24 years, and his detail to another regiment is naturally keenly regretted by everyone. Prior to their departure on tomorrow's transport, they are being extensively fêted. Among those who gave dinners in their honor were Capt. and Mrs. A. Harris, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Demmer, Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick Cook and Lieut. and Mrs. A. Booth. A large reception was given for them on Tuesday by Capt. and Mrs. Robert McCleave and Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell.

Mrs. William F. Hellbron was hostess at a most charmingly appointed luncheon at the Young hotel, Thursday last. Her guests were Mrs. Buckley, Mrs. Dodge, and Miss Grace Layman, the latter a social favorite of the bay cities, who has been spending several weeks at the Moana hotel.

Miss Layman is a sister of Mrs. Henry Hellbron, Jr., of Sacramento, who will be remembered as Miss Hazel Layman.

The Hellbron families are among the best known people socially and financially in the state.

Mrs. Montgomery Macomb was the guest of honor at an attractive luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. William Wooten. Mrs. Macomb leaves next month for Washington, D. C. and prior to her departure, is being extensively entertained. Mrs. Wooten by the way leaves on the transport next week for a three or four months tour of China and Japan and the Philippines.

The officers of the 2d Infantry gave an enjoyable stag dinner on Tuesday evening at the Young Hotel, the occasion being the annual banquet of the regiment. Red, the infantry color, was introduced in the table decorations in the spicy red carnations which formed the centerpiece.

Mrs. John McClellan was the motif for a charmingly informal luncheon yesterday given by Mrs. Marnie Phillips at her home on Kewalo street. Bridge followed the dainty repast, interesting games of auction occupying the afternoon. Covers were laid for twelve.

Miss Ethel Bishop entertained informally at dinner on Tuesday night at the Courtland for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Miss Helen Girvin, Mr. Harry Hoffman and Mrs. Bishop. Yellow chrysanthemums made a very attractive centerpiece for the table.

The marriage of Mr. Edward C. Perry of Honolulu to Miss Helen E. Chase of New Haven, Conn., will take place on the 28th of this month at the home of the bride's parents in New Haven.

The Honolulu choral society will hold their concert the week after Easter. This is an event which is being greatly anticipated by music lovers on the island.

Miss Merced Walton, who has spent the past few months in Honolulu as the guest of Miss Sybil Robertson, returned to her home in California on the Sierra.

Captain and Mrs. Warren T. Hannum entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Col. and Mrs. T. H. Rees and their daughter, Miss Helen Rees. After dinner the party attended the officers' hop at Fort Shafter.

Among the prominent mainlanders who are visiting in Honolulu now are Mrs. E. W. Hills of Washington, Mrs. Kitchings and her son of New York and Mrs. Porter of Spokane. They are being considerably entertained by townspeople, preferring to see Honolulu in that way rather than in the usual tourist fashion.

Mrs. Charles Bon leaves with her children next week for an extended sojourn in Switzerland and the old world.

Mrs. G. F. Humbert, who was operated on Monday for appendicitis, is getting along splendidly, her friends are glad to hear. They are hoping that another week will see her out of the Fort Shafter hospital and ensconced once more in her home at Fort Ruger.

Col. G. K. McGunagle is entertaining at a large dance on Tuesday evening at the Haleiwa hotel.

Miss Lila van Kirk, who has been in Honolulu at the Moana for the past few months, left on the Sierra this morning.

Lieut. Carl A. Hardigg was a dinner host last evening prior to the dance at Fort Shafter, his guests including Capt. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, Miss Mary O'Brien and Miss Helen Alexander.

Miss Ruth Riley who has spent the past few months in Honolulu as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Riley, sailed on the Sierra this morning for her home in Portland.

Word was received this week of the birth of a little son to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lenore Smith of Boston. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Violet Stoeber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wichman.

Mrs. J. A. McCandless entertained at a very pretty tea yesterday afternoon complimentary to her niece, Miss Mary O'Brien, who leaves next month for her home in the states.

Mrs. J. A. Kennedy was hostess at a bridge luncheon on Wednesday at her home on Victoria street. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mrs. Andrew Fuller entertained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon at her Nuuanu Valley home.

Miss Jessie Smith was hostess for the Manoa Bridge Club this afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Phillip Frear, on Punahoa street.

General Clarence Edwards is spending a week or more at Fort Shafter as the guest of Major H. O. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Love are entertaining this evening at their home at Kahala in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Jones of New York.

Miss Margaret Waterhouse will be a passenger on the Matsonia next week for California, where she will spend the summer months.

Mrs. C. P. Morse was hostess on Thursday at an elaborate luncheon at her home in Manoa valley. Covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. C. M. Cooke and her daughter, Miss Alice Cooke, will sail in May for Europe, where they will remain a year or more.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dougherty were dinner hosts at the Country Club on Thursday, covers being laid for sixteen.

Mrs. George Angus entertained informally at tea on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Agnes Vance of Oakland.

Mrs. Harold Lyon was a bridge hostess yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. B. Hyde of Spokane, Wash.

Captain and Mrs. William Matson entertained informally at dinner on Monday night at the Country Club.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, March 6.
Mrs. Pullens, mother of Mrs. Beach, entertained at luncheon for Miss McDonald of St. Joseph, Mo., who is visiting Mrs. Douglas McCaskey in the games beach. Other guests were Mesdames Beach, Mencher, Fair, Chitty, Pechet, McCaskey and the Misses Carpenter, Mason, Reichmann and Holcomb.

Major and Mrs. Ralph Harrison also entertained in honor of Miss McDonald on Monday evening, giving an auction party for Colonel and Mrs. Reichmann, Captain and Mrs. Scherer, Captain and Mrs. McCaskey, Lieutenant and Mrs. Gardenhire, Captain and Mrs. Winans, Miss McDonald, Captain and Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Cheney and Dr. and Mrs. Baker who have recently joined the cavalry garrison from Fort Ruger. Captain and Mrs. Scherer, Mrs. McCaskey and Captain and Mrs. Burnett were the prize winners.

Miss Van Kirk's interesting travelogue on southern Italy on Tuesday evening proved a very successful as well as entertaining evening, as quite a generous sum was realized from the sale of tickets which is to go to the Army Relief Association. Mrs. Beach invited a few friends to her house after the lecture to meet Miss Van Kirk, which informal reception added its quota to a very pleasant evening.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Robert Offley gave a delightful afternoon to a number of auction lovers at her quarters at Castner. About 30 ladies enjoyed her hospitality. The prize winners were Mrs. Welk, who won a silver cold meat fork, Mrs. Kennon, who won an attractive box of stationery, and Mrs. Ladd, who was given the consolation.

Mrs. Holabird with niece, Miss Angus, are visiting Major and Mrs. Cruikshank for a few days. They will be at the Haleiwa hotel for a number of months.

Major and Mrs. Cruikshank will entertain in their honor at Haleiwa on Saturday evening with a moonlight picnic and dance.

Colonel and Mrs. Kennon gave a dinner on Thursday in honor of Colonel McGunagle. Other guests were Colonel and Mrs. Sturgis, Colonel and Mrs. Reichmann, Colonel Atkinson, Colonel and Mrs. Rees, Captain Childs, Lieutenant Watrous, Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Ayers of Honolulu.

Captain and Mrs. James Parker had as guests for dinner on Friday evening, Colonel and Mrs. Mencher, Captain and Mrs. Holbrook and Captain and Mrs. Fair.

On the same afternoon the Cavalry Artillery Auction Club held its meeting with Mrs. O'Shea in the cavalry post. Mrs. Short and Mrs. Baker were elected members.

Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Livingston, mother and aunt of Lieutenant Watrous, have arrived for a visit of some time.

Fort Shafter Society

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
FORT SHAFTER, Mar. 7.—Lieutenant and Mrs. Spencer with their pretty young daughter are recent additions to this garrison. Lieutenant Spencer was promoted to 1st Lieutenant, 2d Infantry, from the 1st Infantry. The quarters question for the Spencers was solved very fortunately by the fact that Major Marquart is leaving the post Sunday and thereby vacates the necessary set of quarters to accommodate the new arrivals. For the present, however, the Spencers are the guests of Captain and Mrs. Ralph B. Lister in Honolulu.

The quarters of Captain and Mrs. Robert McCleave were crowded with the many friends of Major and Mrs. Peter E. Marquart Thursday afternoon from 5 to 6, the occasion being a farewell reception tendered the Marquarts by Captain and Mrs. McCleave and Mrs. Bell. In addition to the hosts and guests of honor, Colonel and Mrs. French assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. M. J. Lenihan poured tea and Mrs. O'Brien served the ices with the Misses Lenihan and Miss Rosenbaum as assistants. The rooms were decorated with natural flowers in abundance and were most attractive. The regimental orchestra played throughout the afternoon and the list of guests included the entire garrison.

MISS PHOEBE ARLEIGH APPEARS IN RECITAL AT NEW YORK EVENT

Miss Phoebe Arleigh, harpist

Miss Phoebe Arleigh of Honolulu and New York, was one of the chief figures in a recital given at the Hotel Plaza on the afternoon of February 10, news of which has just reached Honolulu friends and acquaintances.

The recital was given by pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Tynan Picke, assisted by Miss Arleigh, harpist; Miss Celci Tynan, reader; Miss Emily Gilbert, and Mr. John Roodenburg, with Miss Salie Zamok at the piano.

Miss Arleigh, who is a pupil of Miss Maud Morgan, and whose career in the musical world has been watched with keen interest and much grati-cation by her friends here, appeared with much success in several numbers. A large chorus added to the effect of the recital.

The program was as follows:

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save your hair! Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—advertisement.
